

Hundreds Signing Ministers' Petitions

County Association
Optimistic Board Will
Shorten Tavern Hours

Gaining momentum daily throughout the county is a move by the Madison County Ministerial Association for tavern closing hours in unincorporated areas to be returned to 1 a. m. on weekdays and 2 a. m. on Sundays.

Petitions to be presented to the county liquor commission early next month were placed in circulation last week, and in the Quad-Cities area have been signed by hundreds. The plan is for a "bundle of petitions" bearing thousands of signatures to be presented to County Liquor Commissioner J. H. Haller at the commission's first meeting in December.

Rev. Venice, secretary of the county ministerial group, told the Press-Record the association is optimistic that the county board of supervisors will reverse its stand taken last July when the closing hours were extended to 2:30 a. m. on weekdays and 3:30 a. m. on Sundays.

Appeals to individuals to sign the petitions were made from pulpits throughout the county the past two Sundays, and Rev. Barnett, pastor of Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church here, said they soon will be gathered for presentation to the county liquor commission.

Campaign Problems

The ministerial campaign to restore shorter tavern hours has caused some problems. Rev. Barnett said his home telephone rings at all hours of the day and night. When he or his wife answer it, the party on the other end of the line can be heard to breathe deeply and then hang up.

However, last week Rev. Barnett said he received an anonymous call from a man who identified himself as "a tavern owner who did not want to get into trouble."

"He told me he was not a member of the hastily-formed Madison County Association and that he did not favor the longer hours. He added that the tavern association had only about 12 members."

Church congregation members are being asked also to send clergies to supervisors of their townships requesting them to reconsider their action of July 19 when the tavern closing hour extension was approved by a 37 to 4 vote.

Protest Secrecy, Haste

The ministerial association has protested the "secrecy and haste" in relaxing the closing hours and is advocating a "full discussion" of the issue when tavern hours and license fees come up for consideration at the county board's December meeting.

The ministers also have charged that the closing hours were extended without any advance notice or inclusion on the agenda for the July county board meeting.

Objectives of the group are not only the return to shorter hours in relaxing the closing hours but also a uniform closing hour throughout the county, and, if possible, the entire state.

A committee of ministers compiled the following background material:

"Across the years, there has been constant agitation to grant shorter hours to the taverns. The agitation has been minor of late years little has been done to enforce the closing hours the last few years."

Highway Crash Fatal To Mrs. Kiphart

Year's Toll Now 24;
11 Injuries, 26 Auto
Mishaps On Weekend

A heavy traffic toll of one fatality, 11 injuries and 26 accidents was recorded in the Quad-City area during the weekend. The year's death toll now stands at 24, compared to 18 at this time last year.

The victim was Mrs. Mary Lydia Kiphart, 74, of 1912 1st street, who died at St. Elizabeth Hospital Friday morning as a result of injuries received Nov. 17 in an auto crash near Sparta, Ill.

Her husband, Earl Kiphart, 78, who received head and back injuries in the crash, is in fair condition at the hospital. They were injured when their auto skidded on a rain-slicked pavement and left the roadway. Her 38-year-old son, Earl Kiphart, Jr., who was driving the car, was injured but not seriously.

Survivors are his wife, Selma, a daughter, Mrs. James (Verna Marie) Kidman of Granite City, sister, Mrs. Katie Lewis of Madison, and two brothers, Charles Werner of Madison and Joseph Werner of Houston, Tex.

Services were conducted at 10 a. m. today at a Granite City funeral home, with burial in St. John's Cemetery. An obituary is given elsewhere in this issue.

Burglars Loot School, 6 Homes, Tavern, 5 Autos

Burglaries at a school, six homes and a business place and five thefts from automobiles were reported over the weekend to local and county authorities who said the total loot was valued at several hundred dollars.

A burglary at the Lincoln school occurring last night netted a 21-inch television set, a 36-cup chrome-plated coffee maker, a table lamp and two brown end tables with plastic tops and wrought-iron legs. Venice police discovered the break-in at 9 p. m. Sunday.

Entrance was made by breaking the glass in a door on the east side of the school.

Inquest This Week

In Barnes Murder Case

An inquest is to be conducted this week by Deputy Coroner John Sedlack for the Oct. 20 shooting of Billy G. Barnes, 33, railroad telegrapher of Washington Park, who was shot seven times in his car on a road, a half-mile east of the 20th street-Edwardsville road intersection.

Deputy Coroner Sedlack said he is going to the sheriff's office today to get a copy of the murder report and may possibly hold the inquest early this week since the victim's widow is unable to collect insurance until the death certificate is signed.

It was learned today from Sheriff George Musso that the investigation is "at a standstill."

"We're still waiting to learn the results of ballistics tests from the state crime laboratory, and Assistant State's Atty. John Gitchoff has been out of town."

He should be back late today, and we'll hold a conference either tomorrow or Wednesday," Musso said.

State police detectives are continuing to work with county attorneys to get the case moved to court to solve the murder, now nearly a month old.

Site Available To Build Venice Street Garage

Informal housing authority officials' willingness to sell 14 lots in the 1200 block of Klein street, the Venice city council authorized a $7500 offer Friday night. It is planned to build a new city garage on the site.

Action was taken after Dute P. Branner, Madison County Housing Authority executive director, advised the city he has received verbal assurance of $3600 and $3500 which it had obtained. It was agreed to pay $7500 when the housing officials indicated that nothing less would gain approval.

Formerly the site of gunshot hit temporary housing for veterans, the land is 330x125 feet in size and consists of 14 acres. It is located south of the Merchants Bridge highway.

Burglars Get $3700 in Cash, Merchandise

A first-day rabbit hunter was wounded accidentally just two minutes after he had climbed out of a car and joined a group, including two young teenage boys, on a farm near Coulterville Saturday afternoon.

Art Simmons, 48, of 1123 Reynolds street, Madison, said a rabbit was sitting about 15 to 20 feet in front of him when one of the boys, about 14, fired from about 75 feet away and pellets went through the back of his right hand.

Simmons, a pipefitter helper at Granite City Steel Co., said his hand has been numb since the mishap and he is to return today to St. Elizabeth Hospital for x-rays and consultation with a specialist. He received emergency treatment Saturday afternoon at the local hospital.

"I had just climbed out of the car and had walked about 150 to 200 feet when it happened," Simmons told the Press-Record. He added that the group he was with was strangers and he did not know the youth's name.

The estimate includes the value of $3 items of merchandise, including television sets, radios, small electrical appliances, clocks and a shotgun. In addition, the safe was so badly damaged that it will have to be replaced, it was learned from store officials. The safe-cracking was the second here in two nights and the third this month in the Quad-Cities.

Factors in the investigation include forced entry at the Sterling Television and Appliance Co. across the street at 420 Madison street, an apparently occurring about the same time; a theft of a Madison man's car, with the rear seat missing. The seat was located at the rear of the Friedman store.

Police theorized that the stolen auto was to have been used in the Sterling burglary, where an alarm apparently frightened the intruders away after they had burglarized and opened the front doors. Finding the seat front doors. Finding the seat front doors. Finding the seat front doors.

Girls' Puppy Oversupplied; Has Five Legs

"Lucky" might not seem to be the appropriate name for a dog with five feet, but the four-month-old pet of two Stallings school students doesn't seem to mind.

The male pup, who shows evidence of spitz and collie strains in his background, is a fat, friendly and playful companion of Nancy and June Cravens, the daughters of Mrs. Thomas Land of 4436 Highway 162.

The fact that he has "three left feet," so to speak, has not made any difference to dog owners.

"Lucky" was one of 11 puppies in a litter born to "Floy," a part spitz female owned by Mrs. Land, who said 10 of the pups were perfectly normal in their physical makeup.

Not "Lucky," who was born with a rudimentary fifth leg on his left forepaw.

"We didn't think it would get any larger," said Mrs. Land, "but it just seemed to grow with the rest of him."

The extra leg emerges from

"Lucky's" forepaw at a point which is equivalent to the human elbow. It is equal in length to the second left front leg, but both are smaller than the normal right forepaw.

The rudimentary paw has only one pad and one nail, and is connected to the left front leg by skin and bone for about half its length. Bones in both of the left front "legs" appear to be fully developed, with the exception of those in the feet.

"Lucky" at first walked on his unusual appendage, but lately has taken to hopping around on three — instead of five — paws. The unusual deformity apparently causes the dog no pain, and he submitted to a close examination of the limb quite readily, with much friendly looking and playful biting.

Friends Skeptical

"Our friends didn't believe us at first when we told them we had a five-footed dog," said 12-year-old Nancy, who is a sixth grade student at Stallings school. "But when some of them saw

"Lucky" they changed their minds."

Eight-year-old June, who is in the second grade at Stallings, said teachers don't permit students to bring pets to school. Otherwise, "Lucky" would have been a visitor there earlier.

"People in the neighborhood hear about the dog, and most of them don't believe it either unless they stop by," Mrs. Land added.

"Lucky's" appetite, apparently has not been bothered by the extra leg he must carry around, or by the strangers who come to have a look for themselves, and Mrs. Land said the coal-black puppy is apparently normal in every other way.

Including a fondness toward dozing in front of a warm fire on a chilly fall afternoon, an indulgence not always available since "Lucky" has his own dog house — outside.

Four paws or five, he is still an established member of the household. "We hope we can keep him," said Nancy Cravens.

WHAT'S GUN — Coming Soon!

Displaying nervousness and defensive shortcomings which Coach Bill Ohlendorf said be- fore the game that he expected would show up, the Venice Red Devils dropped the opening game of their 1961-62 basket- ball schedule to St. Peter & Paul in Waterloo Friday night, 86-55.

I couldn't count the bad passes and floor mistakes we made," Ohlendorf said afterwards, "but for our first game I wasn't really disappointed, either." Venice has only one player on its 15-man varsity roster who had any experience there last year.

BIG EARLY LEAD
St. Peter & Paul (3-0) never had its lead threatened after taking a commanding 19-4 advantage late in the first period. By halftime, St. Peter's club had stretched it to 43-24. First and third quarter scores were 22-10 and 60-33.

Playing a double post offense, the hosts had little trouble in scoring against the shorter Venice, who did surprise by holding their own in the rebounding department.

Larry Lutz poured in 29 points for the Waterloo school, and his 6-3 running mate at the other position, Jim Arms, added 19. "And all of them were time buckets," Ohlendorf observed.

Venice, meanwhile, got a 24-point effort from Forward Jerry Cicio, playing his first varsity game as a starter.

The Red Devils refused to let a man-to-man type defense, which Ohlendorf rotated his defenders against Lutz and Arms in an unsuccessful attempt to slow their scoring paces. "They could have simply sat outside and held the ball if we had tried a zone," Ohlendorf said.

Venice Outshot
St. Peter & Paul shot 51% as a team, while Venice managed 32%.

The Venice "B" team rolled to a 48-35 victory in the preliminary game, leading by 15 to the points most of the way. Ken Mcullen paced the winners with 12 points.

Venice varsity scoring: Jerry Cicio 24, Nat Shamir 10, Don Devany 8, Pete Fields 2, Larry Miller 2, Jim Hornum 1. Ohlendorf has a nine-day period in which to prepare his players for their home opener at St. Peter & Paul on Tuesday, Nov. 28. He said a lot of practice time will be spent in moving to improve the club's defense.

Chiefs Finish Strong But North Of Alton

Wins Thursday, 58-56
Prather junior high school's nine graders rallied with 24 points in the final quarter, but a six-minute period in the opening stanza which netted only one point resulted in a 58-56 basketball win for host North JHS of Alton Thursday night.

Outscored 15-7 in the first period, Bob Miller's team could not catch up in its first game of the season. The Chiefs had cut Alton's lead to 26-20 by halftime.

Four Prather players finished in double figures, led by Jim Rains and Bob Martinez, each of whom scored 12 points. "Louis Miller and Don Lupardus accounted for 10 each. Dave Smith, center of North JHS, led all scorers with 22 points.

On Nov. 30, the Chiefs will play Coolidge JHS at the Prather gym.

sheriff or county liquor commissioner.

A few months ago pressure was applied by the state's attorney's office and other sources. Reacting to pressure, the liquor commissioner and sheriff asked for some penalties or fines to be given to those disobeying closing time.

"This was done at the June meeting of the supervisors, with a $100 fine for the first offense and a $200 fine for the second offense. (Prior to this time, the sheriff could only report them and their license could be suspended or revoked.)

Reluctantly, the sheriff made some arrests. This unusual action immediately aroused the tavern owners, and they formed the Madison County Tavern Operators' Association.

Quick Contacts
"This Tavern Association contacted some supervisors friendly to them, and at the July meeting of the board of supervisors, a liquor resolution was passed. The resolution gave the taverns an extension of hours from 1 a.m. weekdays and 2 a.m. on Sundays to 2:30 a.m. weekdays and 3:30 a.m. on Sundays.

"The supervisors have a rule which says that such matters are to be agenda items. This resolution was not on the agenda. A lawyer for the tavern association prepared the resolution rather than the office of the state's attorney.

"Only the tavern association knew of this resolution in advance, so that only they were present. There was no discussion and no opposition. The vote was 37 for and 4 against.

"The supervisors did not really know what they had done until after they had done it.

"The following month, at the supervisors' meeting, a formal written protest was read from the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association, which was a resolution of their objections to individual supervisors.

"On Oct. 4, interested ministers met in Edwardsville to discuss what could be done. The Madison County Ministerial Association was formed as a resolution adopted and it was sent to each supervisor Sunday, Nov. 12. Was designated as the day to present this matter to the people of our parishes; a committee was asked to prepare materials for each minister in the county."

MAGIC SHOW AT CUB

PACK 91 MEETING

The opening ceremony was given by Den One, under the direction of Mrs. Betty Caldwell, assistant den mother. Rev. LeRoy Pittman led singing.

Ronk presented an award to Bob Causey and announced that the pack will serve at the round table meeting Dec. 4. Those serving will be Mrs. Janet Underwood, Den Three den mother; Willis Shepard, cubmaster; Mrs. Louise Anderson, Den One den mother; and Ronk.

The committee for the annual "blue and gold" banquet to be held in February was named: Mrs. Jerry Pool, Mrs. Evelyn Willis, Mrs. Ann McDonald, Mrs. Eva Shepard and Mrs. Juanita Libby.

The Christmas party will be held at the next pack meeting, Dec. 14 at the school, and the cubs will decorate a tree and present it to the church, which in turn will give it to a family unable to have one. Each cub is to bring an ornament for the tree and the pack will provide the tree and the lights.

Den Two presented a magic show under the direction of Mrs. Vera Pittman, assistant den mother. Donald Durbin, as Professor Mystic, aided an "old woman." Jimmy Shepard, under his magic machine and she came out as a young girl in a bathing suit; a young boy, Steven Pittman, wanted his big dog made smaller, and out came two hot dogs; a stooped old man, Jeffrey Lybarger, wanted to become tall and the magic machine made him that possible; and Ricky Caldwell was changed from an elderly man into a young lad.

After the show, games were played under the supervision of John Boyer, Harold Caldwell and Charles Libby. The attendance award was won by Den Two, which was presented a totem pole by Ronk.

Den One conducted a candle-light closing service, and refreshments were served by Den Three, with Mrs. Underwood in charge, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Wilmzig, Mrs. Bees Causey and Mrs. Val Lamm.

10 Days Left To Apply Under Wheat Program

Less than ten days remain in which growers may file applications to take part in the 1962 winter wheat stabilization program, Edwin C. Reithimer, Chairman, Madison County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded farmers today.

The deadline is Dec. 1, the chairman said, which means producers may sign up at any time through Friday, Dec. 1st.

Farmers who take part in the program will be eligible to receive special payments for diverting a part of their acreage from the production of wheat and devoting that acreage to an approved conservation use, and is expected to be approximately 21 cents a bushel more than this year.

The county support rate will be announced early in 1962, and is expected to be approximately 21 cents a bushel more than this year.

The chairman reminded Madison county farmers that every wheat producer in the United States has had a part in producing the overabundance of this commodity. It will take the cooperation of all wheat farmers to reduce the excessive stockpile. The Madison county ASCS office in Edwardsville will be glad to discuss details of the program, but Dec. 1st is the last day that applications can be accepted.

MRS. CALVIN PENROD ADMIRING THE FRIGIDAIRE FLAIR RANGE IN HER NEWLY RE-MODELED KITCHEN

For almost 40 years, we at Friedman's, Fifth and Madison, have built our business on satisfied customers, of which Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Penrod are typical.

Seldom do our customers express their thoughts in writing, as the Penrods have done, but we know they think Friedman's is a good place to trade because they keep coming back again and again.

When we decide to do anything else to our home in the way of remodeling or buying furniture, or appliances we will give you folks the business, also tell our friends to see you first before they buy.

THANKS AGAIN THE PENRODS.

Mrs. Penrod was so thrilled with her new Willett Birch Kitchen that she baked a "Thank You" cake in her new Frigidaire Flair Range and sent it to our store staff.

FRIEDMAN'S ARE JUST AS PROUD AS THE PENRODS ABOUT THEIR NEW KITCHEN

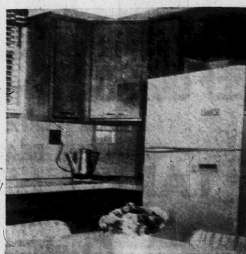

MR. AND MRS. COPY OF LETTER FROM CALVIN PENROD, 2923 CAYUGA ST.

We want to thank you and all the folks at your store for your thoughtfulness and interest shown us in remodeling our kitchen, as well as other times we have bought different items for our home. Everyone has helped us in one way or another, the girls in the office have been so nice to take care of our needs when we telephoned, the Sales People have always been so nice to help us select exactly what we needed in paint, floor covering or hardware, the men on the trucks have been very nice who delivered any item we had on order, and a Special Thank you to Bob Shelton when he came out, sat down with us and helped us plan our beautiful kitchen. We are so pleased with the nice Birch cabinets and our nice Flair range, also thanks to Bob for sending nice folks to do the installing of the cabinets, range and storm windows. (Zim-mer Bros.) Bob McCall and his helper did such a nice job on our Ceramic Tile, and thanks to the electrician, the man that installed the formica and sinks, and any one who helped us in any way.

When we decide to do anything else to our home in the way of remodeling or buying furniture, or appliances we will give you folks the business, also tell our friends to see you first before they buy.

THANKS AGAIN THE PENRODS.

AFTER — The same corner shown at the left, after the remodeling was completed. This shows how well the Frigidaire Refrigerator we sold the Penrods a couple of years ago fits in with their new kitchen.

The young people had been selected on a monthly basis since October 1960, as possessing the qualities of leadership, courage and ability worthy of special recognition.

Speaks On 'Work'
Members, "Youth of the Month" winners and guests, Robert Harris, heard an address by Dr. Lambert Case, an instructor in the industrial training program at Southern Illinois University, entitled "Work."

Dr. Case, who has been associated with various youth movement projects, including scouting, for the past 30 years, told his listeners that the only method of achieving success is through hard work.

He urged youth to go to work as soon as possible, but not to take the first job opportunity which presented itself.

"Most people think of a work as a curse," Dr. Case said. This is because they are not sincerely happy in what they are doing, he added.

He said the early establishment of an avocation or hobby will prove helpful later when the young person seeks his first paying position.

"When you do work that you like, you're really not working in the sense of thinking about work," Dr. Case told his audience. "Find out what you are best adapted for by experimenting, or through tests and counseling."

New Trial Hearing Set For Latham And York

A hearing on a motion for new trial for convicted killers James Latham and George York, who have been sentenced by a Kansas jury to hang, will be held Nov. 27, after a postponement last week.

Attorneys for the two, who have admitted seven murders, including two in Madison county, asked the postponement so they could have more time to study the trial transcript and prepare briefs.

York, 19, of Jacksonville, Fla., and 18-year-old Latham of Maurensville, Tex., were convicted Nov. 8 of the first-degree murder of Otto Ziegler in Kansas last June.

Among other slayings they have admitted are the June 8 shooting of Albert Reed of Litchfield and bludgeoning of Martin Drenovac of Mitchell. Reed's body was found in a drainage ditch near Peter's Station, and Drenovac was beaten to death at his Twin Oaks service station on By-Pass 66 west of Mitchell.

Free 'Talking Letters' As Overseas Yule Gifts

A "talking letter" program for Christmas will be sponsored this year by the local American Red Cross chapter. The program was learned today from Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, executive secretary. Free ten-minute recordings can be made by Quad-Cityans to be sent to a serviceman or relative located in a foreign country.

With the Red Cross bearing expenses of the program, only cost to an individual or family participating will be postage of about 28 cents. Mrs. Overbeck said it is hoped to conduct the recording sessions in the week of Nov. 27 at a convenient location.

Details are to be announced as soon as they are completed. The plan involves providing an uncut recording and the facilities to record a verbal message intended for individual overseas. The finished record and a package for mailing are then turned over to the local family.

The unique Christmas gift program also is sponsored in other communities by Red Cross chapters.

How To Carve A Turkey

In time for Thanksgiving, the Illinois Farm Bureau this week suggests one way to carve the family Thanksgiving day turkey. The bureau suggests the step-by-step procedure be clipped and saved not only for next Thursday but also for the turkey dinner planned for the holiday season.

How to carve a turkey —

1. To remove leg (thigh or second joint and drumstick). Hold the drumstick firmly with fingers, pulling gently away from turkey body. At the same time cut breast skin between leg and body. Continue as follows:
2. Press leg away from body with flat side of knife. Then cut through joint joining leg to backbone and skin on the back. If the "oyster", a choice oyster-shaped piece lying in the spoon-shaped section of the backbone was not removed with the thigh, remove it at this point. Hold leg on service plate with drumstick at a convenient angle. Additional turkey may be carved drumstick and thigh by cutting down through the joint to the plate.
3. Slice drumstick meat. Hold drumstick upright at a convenient angle to plate and cut down, turning drumstick to get uniform slices. Chicken drumsticks and thighs are usually served without slicing.
4. Slice thigh meat. Hold thigh first on plate with a fork. Cut slices of meat parallel to the bone.
5. Cut into white meat parallel to wing. Make a cut deep into the breast to the body frame parallel to and as close to the wing as possible.
6. Slice white meat. Beginning at front, starting halfway up the breast, cut thin slices of white meat down to the cut made parallel to the wing. The slices will fall away from the turkey as they are cut to the line. Continue carving until enough meat has been carved for first service. Additional turkey may be carved as needed.

Optimists View Film On Urban Renewal

"Rebirth of a Nation," a movie describing the federal government's urban renewal program, was shown at the Noonday Optimist club's regular weekly meeting Thursday by Alderman Donald Partney, chairman of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce Urban Renewal committee and chairman of the city council's plan committee.

In surveys of communities with less than 50,000 population in the United States, 20% of the people have been found to live in sub-standard housing, the movie shows. These sub-standard areas require 50% of the community services and produce 40% of the crimes and juvenile delinquency.

Under the urban renewal plan, the federal government shares a major portion of the cost with the community. Home improvements are provided. Projects already completed, such as new schools, are credited to the city.

Presented at the Thursday meeting was Rev. Randal Mercer, promotional director of the Assembly of God Children's Home at Maryville, Rev. Mercer described the work done at the home for more than 250 homeless children in the past 13 years.

Rev. Mercer reminded the Optimists of the upcoming sports program which the home is sponsoring to help pay the cost of a new gymnasium recently constructed. The event is scheduled for Dec. 2 at the Granite City Memorial Auditorium.

Guests at the meeting were David Morgan, chairman of the Granite City Planning Commission, and John Barron, director of the Tri-City Regional Port Authority.

Plans for the 1961-62 year, first in which the Madison county school superintendent's office has conducted a guidance and counseling coordinating program, call for Quad-City districts to bear $1943 of the $12,170 cost.

A breakdown based on average daily attendance last spring divides the remaining $3170 cost — $2400 for a secretary and $700 for supplies and office expenses — among the Madison district, $340; Venice $103; Col. lineville $396; Edwardsville $490; Bethalto $375; Roxana $364; East Alton elementary $180; Wood River elementary $178; East Alton-Wood River high school $133; Highland $167; Triad $159; Livingston $49 and Worden $38.

Alton will pay his salary from Sept. 1 through Feb. 28, 1962, and Granite City will be responsible for the March 1-Aug. 31 period. All other bills will be paid through the Edwardsville district, which will be reimbursed by the 12 other school systems.

"Purpose of the program is to coordinate guidance activities and counseling services among the schools of the county through a program of workshops, conferences and group meetings, making studies that eventually will upgrade the professional services and community understanding of the guidance and counseling services so they become an integral part of quality education," Trimpe has explained.

"The county coordinator of counseling services has been selected by the state superintendent of public instruction office to conduct the pilot program for 1961-62 under the direction of administrators of the local school districts, the county superintendent and the state superintendent's office."

"This being a pilot program, areas of leadership will be in-service training, promoting cooperation in testing information, and uniform practices for handling pupil personnel, together with an evaluation of local guidance programs and providing liaison assistance with state guidance personnel."

The supervisory committee consists of five superintendents, Harold M. Kaiser of Granite City, Wm. L. Brown of Madison, A. Gordon Dotts of Edwardsville, Olin W. Stratton of Highland and A. Edson Smith of East Alton-Wood River high school.

Planning Commission Sees Urban Renewal Movie

The City Planning Commission, headed by David Morgan, met in a brief session Thursday evening in the courtroom at the city hall and viewed a film on urban renewal, the same movie as shown at the Nov. 8 meeting of the city council.

Planning commissioners, who have talked to representatives of four firms seeking to aid the city in filing an application for federal redevelopment funds, now will interview officials in communities where urban renewal programs have been carried out before submitting a recommendation to the city council, Morgan said.

The chairman said there were no zone change requests submitted to the commissioners.

LUMBER DUFFIN BROS. COMPANY

1300 MADISON AVE. TR. 6-3881

Today practically every rural home in Illinois Power territory enjoys electric service. More than 35,000 of these are direct customers of Illinois Power. Thousands of others are served with electricity generated by Illinois Power and distributed by rural electrical cooperatives.

As an investor-owned utility, Illinois Power operates within the regulations of the Illinois Commerce Commission. This regulation is in the public interest, because it is intended to prevent wasteful duplication of facilities to serve the public. But — the fact that rural electric cooperatives are not regulated... and are in competition with investor-owned utilities is a source of growing concern to many informed Illinois residents. For more information, ask at our local office.

THANKSGIVING TOPIC OF HOPE WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Hope Lutheran Women's League met at Hope Lutheran church at Gardfield and Walnut avenues Thursday evening with Rev. Alfred Budd leading a topic discussion on "Thanksgiving." Mrs. Eileen Heins, president of the league, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Marie Jensen on sale receipts. Mrs. Heins and Mrs. Helen Roosen, co-chairman of the nominating committee, named a slate of officers for the annual election, which will be held in December.

A favorable report was given by Mrs. Ethel Zimmer and Mrs. Marie Jensen on sale receipts. The sale will continue. The group decided to buy Christmas gifts for all services to the church and to make arrangements for world relief for needy children. Mrs. Anna Mae Turner reported on the church cradle roll.

Devout chrysanthemums and candy turkeys were used as table decorations, and the evening's hostesses were Mrs. Verne Moehle and Mrs. Joyce Bettorf. Two new members were enrolled and were introduced by Mrs. Heins. They are Mrs. Pearl Sharp and Mrs. Helen Kaddok. The annual Christmas party has tentatively been set for Dec. 21 at the church.

INVESTURE FOR BROWNIE TROOP
An investiture ceremony was held Friday afternoon at Frohardt school by Brownie Troop 88 for four girls, Brenda Brewer, Lucinda Dusk, Debby Rutkowski and Jean Snider. Mrs. John Haynes, troop leader, was in charge.

After the ceremony, she presented 21 girls with olive-leaf stars in honor of the first birthday of the troop. They were the new additions and friends: Barbara, Barbara Bettorf, Jackie Corbin, Cheryl Crews, Phyllis Dwyer, Peggy Flach, Vickie Gerkin, Nancy Hamilton, Pamela Haynes, Barbara Kowalewicz, JoAnn Meyer, Diane Moss, Patricia Smith, Mary Ann Spore, Debra Stein, Carol Sue Wells and Alice Rodell.

The troop discussed plans for the "festival of giving," which will be the filling of Christmas baskets.

Mrs. Charles Rodell, assisted by Mrs. Rudolph Spore and Mrs. Emil Gerkin, served refreshments after the meeting. Table arrangements were in keeping with the season, with turkey, candy-filled cornucopias and fall leaves.

MRS. BAKER HOSTESS TO SECRET PAL CLUB
Mrs. Dixie Baker was hostess for the November meeting of the Secret Pals Thursday evening in her home, 4733 Vincent avenue, and the birthday of Mrs. Betty Osburn was observed with gifts from the club and her secret pal.

Games were played, with Mrs. Norma Vaughn, Mrs. JoAnn Harrison, Mrs. Dots Perkins, Mrs. Geraldine Thomas and Mrs. Betty Fawcett winning the prizes. A centerpiece of chrysanthemums graced the serving table for the late dessert course, served by Mrs. Baker to the evening's winners and Mrs. Osburn. Mrs. Jerry Rill, Mrs. Dorothy Burgess and Mrs. Na'ne Harrison.

The club will meet Nov. 30 for its annual dinner party, and the next regular meeting will be the first week in December at the home of Mrs. Thomas, 2145 Lee avenue, for the club's Christmas party and revealing of secret pals.

EIGHTH BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR BRENDA BREWER
The eighth birthday of Brenda Brewer, a third grade student at Frohardt school, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brewer, was celebrated with a birthday party Saturday afternoon in the rathskeller of the Brewer home, 3109 Myrtle avenue.

Mrs. Brewer used the traditional birthday cake at the centerpiece of the serving table, and it was decorated with eight candles for candles. Each child received a cake as a favor.

Susie Fricke and Judy Dublar were the game winners and were presented with gifts by the hostess, who was assisted by her older children, Linda and Wayne. The other guests were Kathy Kwiatkowski, Connie Edwards, Pam Deischer, Debby Mize, Debby Reider, Mary Ann Spore, Pam Hanco, Debby and Vicki Gerkin and the younger brother of the honored guest, Lewis Brewer.

NINTH BIRTHDAY PARTY
The ninth birthday of Patrick Loftus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Loftus, was celebrated at a birthday party Saturday afternoon in his home, 2333 Terminal avenue.

Mrs. Loftus used a pirate theme in red, black and white decorations for the basement, and the cake was complete with a Jolly Roger flag. Each guest was given a pirate hat, mustache and ash to wear. "Pirates of eight," chocolate wrapped in gold, were given as favors.

Games were played, and "pirates" capturing the day's "loot" were Larry Holder, Mike Loftus and Wally Holder. The raffle of modern day pirates at the party were George Smith, Steve Kovar, David Evans, Ronald Grillon, Joe Simmers, Dennis Kolan and the younger Loftus children, Beatt, Mark and Jeffrey.

State Remapping Still In Stalemate After Six Weeks

(Special From Springfield) Continuation of a stalemate in the Illinois State Assembly, re-entitled to 25 congressional apportionment, confirmation of a temporary stop gap Charles W. Gray, 38, Prospect Heights, to be chairman-member of the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission and further delays on legislation in Gov. Kerner's program, featuring deliberations of a special session of the Illinois General Assembly here last week.

The session which had been expected to adjourn since the last of Rep. Morris, to keep it alive was left in a confused state when lawmakers went home Friday after a midnight House session, making it effective immediately. It was marked by rejection of a bill by Rep. John Morris (D-Chicago) to set up a new plan for dividing the state's 24 congressional districts. It would on the House calendar for a possible second try this week.

Confused Adjournment
Both Houses were left in confusion after adjournment. The Senate adjourned Thursday until Nov. 28 to allow what Republicans said was an opportunity for the lawmakers to "cool off" and to do "some thinking" for the next few weeks.

It was suggested a "vacation" from the already six-week long session might make members of both parties feel more conciliatory to a new idea (yet to be worked out) of reapportionment. There are still several proposals pending.

The House, however, refused to act on the Senate No. 28 adjournment. Instead it adopted one offered by Rep. George Dunne, Chicago, Democratic majority floor leader, to adjourn until today. Because of this the Senate was in perfunctory session Friday. The vote on Dunne's adjournment resolution was mostly on party lines. It got 89 "yes" votes, a bare majority with 53 votes against it.

More turmoil was injected into the deliberation Friday when minority Democrats in the Senate, irritated by absence of a plan, only to discard it after Cook County Republican Chairman Francis X. Connell, Chicago, hurried to Springfield to tell the conservatives that population statistics on a "swing" district were inaccurate.

"Last Ditch Solution"

The Morris remap bill was okayed by Gov. Kerner at a press conference Thursday as a proposal that was "better than no bill at all." Rep. Morris who had several Republicans on his bill called it a "last ditch" solution. The measure which had appeared likely of getting the required two-thirds support of the House lost favor when Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley opposed it.

At his press conference the Governor was critical of Republicans for not getting together with the Democrats on a workable remap. He again said he had information the GOP in Illinois was following the dictates of the Republican National Committee.

Assst. Sergeant-at-Arms Byron Hogan, Springfield, said after it reportedly had collapsed, an effort to reach a solution. At one time the conference committee was said to have reached a nine to one agreement on a plan, only to discard it after Cook County Republican Chairman Francis X. Connell, Chicago, hurried to Springfield to tell the conservatives that population statistics on a "swing" district were inaccurate.

occupation tax to the 35% level of the retail occupation tax, increase the number of Cook county superior court judges by 18 and expand an existing state revenue-economy study commission.

Sen. George Drach (R-Springfield) Republican senate majority whip, said congressional reapportionment was the main purpose for calling the special session and that the recess would enable the current congressional conference committee "to get a fresh start."

One Democratic call holding the Kerner bills on the calendar, "black-mail" an effort to force the Democrats to go along with Republicans on a remapping.

The Senate last week confirmed appointment of Gray to the FEPC agency after a second hearing before the Senate Executive Committee, which had recalled an earlier recommendation of Gray because he had called testimony of witnesses at a hearing on another Kerner FEPC appointee a "ruse." The committee, however, after more than an hour of oratory, questioning and gavel thumping, gave Gray a second recommendation and the Senate confirmed him, 36 to 11.

Apparently lost in the special session are several other bills. Kerner had included in his call for the special session which was convened here on Oct. 10. Those include proposed increase of the state corporation franchise tax; subsidization of the CTA (Chicago Transit Authority) for public transportation of Chicago; and to allow school children to vote on a local executive taxative Committee, which had re-

"Tom-the-Gobbler" looks a bit special this Thanksgiving Season partly because about 2½-million pounds of frozen turkeys are being shipped by semi-trailer trucks to Illinois schools for Thanksgiving and Xmas dinners courtesy of the school lunch division of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. If placed in a single file from beak to tail, the live gobblers would form a line of over 600 miles. Watching the loading of the frozen turkeys are Superintendent George J. Wilkins and 10-year-old Kay Downtain of Springfield's West Grand School.

Public Relations And The Police Dept.

(This is the 43rd in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

"Much of what has been said in this chapter on the police department could be put together under the heading of public relations.

"Public relations covers many aspects of the daily routine of any employee. It covers his contacts with his superiors, his fellow officers, other city employees, the mayor and members of the council and the residents, citizens and visitors of Granite City as a whole.

"The police officer is one of the front line representatives of the city government. He is on the street where he is in constant view of the public, and he is even more noticeable because he is in uniform and drives a marked car.

Persons In Trouble

"Many of his personal contacts with the public occur when people are in trouble, under strain or emotionally upset. It is time when the utmost in tact and firmness is required to avoid serious criticism of the officer, the department and the city.

"Training courses such as the one recently completed by the Granite City department devote considerable time and attention to how the officer should deport himself.

"A series of descriptions of the several unpopular types of police officer complete with cartoon illustrations showed Officer Swager, who is so impressed with his importance, and Officer Leadfoot, who always drives the squad car at 100 speed, were included in the course. A police department always has officers who fit these descriptions to some degree, and it is the duty of the chief through the training program, employee rating, staff conferences with supervisors and through other means to take the necessary corrective steps.

"There are other public relations steps that the department can take. It should be well represented in any reports to the people the city may put out, it should attempt to have press coverage which reports not only the improvements and developments in the department itself.

"Community services already offered by the police department should be allowed to accept speaking engagements whenever the subjects and speakers available. The appearance of the officers, the appearance of the police station, the activity of the employees in the station all are vital items in a public relations program.

"The officers should be uniformly neat, should not smoke while on the street or driving the squad car, should not be seen hanging around the station, should not become involved in long conversations on the street or remain for long periods in coffee shops.

"The station should be a place which gives the impression of efficiency, employees should be working, neither officers nor outsiders or city officials should be seen loafing, kidding and joking in the public view.

"This should be carried on in the recreation room or lounge during breaks or when off duty. As mentioned before, all officers should be courteous in their contacts with the citizens. This is particularly true of the officer on the telephone.

"Change of Attitude—The aim of public relations is to change the traditional public attitude toward policemen. William S. Gilbert dramatized the problem over 50 years ago in 'The Pirates of Penzance' when he wrote:

"When constabulary duty's to be done,
The policeman's lot is not a happy one."

"The public's hostility toward the police cannot be wholly explained from the traditional resentment of those who represent authority.

"Much of the poor attitude has been brought about by the actions of policemen themselves. The long history in some cities of cooperation with corrupt politicians, the spoils system, bribery, complicity with criminals and frequent charges of brutality have given law enforcement officers a bad name.

"It should be the constant aim of the chief and of all the men in his command to make every effort to reverse this attitude and replace it by one of respect for the dignity and efficiency of men engaged in a high level of public service."

Rev. Russell Oden, pastor of the First Methodist Church, director of the Christmas program for church groups of all ages, are conducting practice sessions at the church. The title of the program is "Looking For A Star", and it has four scenes.

Those who have started practicing are Mrs. Doris Patterson, Mrs. Lorraine Creighton, Mrs. Emma Graves, Robert Black, Warren Gilbeau, Joey Vaughn, Glenn Wilkins, Dennis Reiter, Warren Wilkins, Wesley Clemons, Lester Cook, Robert Graves, Edgar Wilkins, Arlene Schlechter and Sandra Wilkins.

The play will be given at the church Dec. 21 at the regular evening worship time.

It's Just Around the Corner

Postmasters Urge Early Mailings For Christmas

"It's time to start planning your Christmas card and gift mailings," Postmasters Theodore Overbeck of Granite City; Harry R. Johnson of Madison and Charles Simmons of Venice said today as they launched their annual "Mail early for Christmas" campaigns.

Looking ahead to what may be the biggest Christmas season ever, the postmasters said that there are the things to watch to help in getting every Christmas card and package delivered before Dec. 25th.

"Check your Christmas card and gift lists carefully. Be sure each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, zone and state. Avoid abbreviations of city and state names."

"For your gift packages, secure heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord and adhesive tape. Remember, also that you can include your Christmas card or letter inside your gift packages if you will add the appropriate First Class mail stamp to the postage for the package itself."

"Stock up on postage stamps by doing this soon—you'll save lots of time that might be spent standing in line later on. When you go to the Post Office, ask for a supply of labels which read 'All For Local Delivery' and 'All For Out of Town Delivery,' so that before you mail your Christmas cards you can sort them into two groups, with the addresses all facing one way, thus expediting delivery."

Postmaster's Big Gift

Mailings For Christmas

This time on short planning plan your Christmas mailings. Your Christmas card and gift. Get a copy of Postmaster's No. 2 mailings. Postmaster's, Theodore, who gives full information, checkbook of Granite City. Harry about proper packaging and wrapping of parcels.

"First class postage is best for mailing your Christmas cards. All cards must be paid for in advance. The postage may include a personal handwritten message, and they'll be forwarded or retained if that becomes necessary. Be sure to put your return address on your Christmas card envelopes. It's socially correct to do this and enables both you and your friends to keep your mailing lists up-to-date."

"Predicting that this year's Christmas mail will set an all-time record, the postmaster pointed out the importance of planning Christmas mailings now to avoid a lot of headaches when the Christmas rush comes to a close."

They said further that through the excellent cooperation of the public during recent Christmas seasons, they have been able to get all of the Christmas cards and packages dispatched and delivered before Christmas Eve.

"We can all make the 1961 Mail Early For Christmas campaign a big success," they continued, "if we'll all take a personal responsibility in planning our Christmas mailings now. This card and gift packages, so to most distant points are mailed by Dec. 10th, and earlier, if possible. Christmas packages for local destinations should be mailed by Dec. 15, and be sure to mail your Christmas cards to friends and relatives in this area at least a week before Christmas."

"The post office will help you."
